Just an old fashioned girl, that's Julie.

'Well,' she told us, 'at least in the way I like to please my man. I just love dressing up in lacy French silk undies, half cup bras, and wouldn't be caught dead in anything other than stockings and suspenders. They just make you feel so feminine that all I ever think about when I'm out in them with my man, is how soon he is going to get me home and give me a good seeing to.

'If the guy I'm out with is a new one, I usually like to get him home to my flat and make him fuck me up against the antique mahogany desk I have in my hall. It's usually easy to get him really worked up at the front door, then once we're away from the possible prying eyes of neighbours, I'll get his cock out and lay back against the desk. I'll hitch up my skirt and pull my panties aside and guide him in. If he can perform under those conditions, I know he'll be worth hanging on to. For a while, anyway.' ♣
